

2024-06-16 Seventy Richard Neill - The Heart and a Willing Mind - Song and Worship Service Notes

<https://youtu.be/4ZdmP560V48>

<https://www.livinghopebranch.org/sermons/2024-06-16-seventy-richard-neill-the-heart-and-a-willing-mind/>

Clickable Time Stamps

02:23 Children's Book Sharing - "The Garden, The Curtain and The Cross" - Christina Neill

27:41 Special Music - "There's Something About That Name" - Kindred Spirit (Cullen Maday, Karen Brown, Brian Maday, Melanie Mosby, Gary Leibold, Jack Hagensen)

31:12 Welcome and Call to Worship - Elder Jack Hagensen

42:01 Scripture Reading - Seventy Richard Neill

47:42 Special Music - "Brightly Beams" - One Voice (Cullen Maday, Brian Maday, Gary Leibold, Jack Hagensen)

50:29 Sermon - "The Heart and a Willing Mind" - Seventy Richard Neill

Summary

A sermon for Father's Day intertwines the theme "Be One" with reflections on fatherhood, using a story from the Book of Mormon about King Mosiah and his sons who sought to preach to their enemies. Seventy Richard Neill shares personal experiences of loss and the importance of family, emphasizing the unconditional love of a father and the need for unity in the family of God.

Highlights

1. Theme "Be One" - A call for unity among families and communities.
2. Father's Day Reflection - Recognition of the vital role fathers play in nurturing and guiding.
3. Scriptural Example - Story from Mosiah about King Mosiah's sons and their mission.
4. Personal Testimony - Sharing experiences of loss and love, highlighting the bond with fathers.
5. Community Connection - Importance of supporting and caring for one another in times of need.
6. Role of Prayer - Emphasizing seeking divine guidance in family matters.

7. Call to Action - Encouragement to engage with and uplift those around us.

Key Insights

1. Unity in Diversity - The theme “Be One” reminds us that despite differences, we can come together as a family and community. This unity fosters understanding and support among members.
2. Fatherhood’s Impact - The role of a father is foundational in shaping character and values. The speaker’s reflections reveal how fathers guide their children, creating lasting bonds.
3. Scriptural Guidance - The story from Mosiah illustrates the importance of seeking divine direction when making significant family decisions, reinforcing the need for spiritual leadership.
4. Coping with Loss - Personal anecdotes of losing a father highlight how grief can be shared and processed within a supportive community, helping others find healing.
5. Mentorship and Support - The experiences shared demonstrate the importance of stepping into fatherly roles for those in need, showcasing how love transcends biological ties.
6. Community Responsibility - Emphasizing that we are called to care for one another, the sermon reinforces the idea that family extends beyond blood relations to encompass neighbors and friends.
7. Actionable Faith - The call to action encourages individuals to actively live their faith by serving others, fostering an environment of love and support.